

Wahoo Docks warrants any new residential dock system manufactured by it and installed by a qualified Wahoo Docks representative (do-it-yourself Kit Docks are specifically excluded) against structural defects, broken structural components and broken welds when properly maintained and under normal use and service for a period of twenty (20) years. Such warranty extends only to the original consumer and covers replacement components from the manufacturer or material to make repairs. In addition to this Warranty covering the structural fitness of the dock, certain component parts, such as roofing, decking and other cosmetic and auxillary items, may carry additional warranties and offer additional protection.

This warranty does not apply to, and Wahoo Docks makes no warranties, expressed or implied with respect to normal wear and tear, improper maintenance, improper alterations, misuse, negligence, exposure to harmful chemicals and chemical reactions, accident, excessive loads, impact of foreign objects, acts of God, storm damage, ice damage, damage resulting from the attachment of foreign objects, discoloration of materials or goods which are not defective but which may wear out during the warranty period.

To validate the warranty, purchaser must receive approval from Wahoo Docks with respect to the anchoring, dock design and any other issues that may be of relevance in determining the suitability of a dock for its particular environment. Such approval may be obtained from Wahoo Docks prior to installation or up to 90 days after installation either through a Wahoo representative, by email to contact@wahoodocks.com, or through direct mail. Requests for approval must be accompanied with photographs of the dock, including views to show the anchoring arrangement (pre-approved docks must have photos forwarded after completion illustrating the approved, proposed anchoring arrangements).

Claims must be presented to Wahoo Docks or its representative within five days of discovery and include proof of purchase, photographs of defect, and a written description of the defect. Warranty claims should be directed to: Wahoo Docks, 1604 Athens Hwy., Gainesville, GA 30507

This warranty is limited to the structural fitness of the dock and is exclusive and in lieu of any and all other structural warranties, expressed or implied, including without limitation, any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, except with respect to the replacement or repair of defective product as described herein. Wahoo Docks shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental, punitive, consequential, exemplary or other damages of any kind whatsoever related to the goods delivered hereunder, whether such claim is based upon theories of contract, warranty, negligence, tort, struck liability or otherwise. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state.
